JURY IS SHUT UP OVER NIGHT

Takes Long Time to Find Verdict in Lee Young Case.

The trial of Lee Young, the Chinaman from Nahiku, Maui, charged with having counterfeit coin in possession, was completed before Judge Dole yesterday afternoon and went to the jury at 4 o'clock. That body considered the evidence but failing to agree at once was sent to the Hawaiian Hotel to spend the night with instructions to deliver a sealed verdict to U. S. Marshal Hendry in case an agreement should be reached.

Lee Young is charged with passing a counterfeit $10 gold piece on one A. L. Hing to whom he lost $15 in a game of paikau on March 6. The testimony of some of the witnesses for the prosecution disagreed in some particulars from which there was probably a question of doubt cast into the mind of some of the jurors.

The case was conducted for the prosecution by Assistant U. S. District Attorney Dunne and for the defense by Attorney A. G. M. Robertson.

COURT ITEMS.

The papers in the case of Maria Barete vs. Agnes and Manuel Soares, a petition for admeasurement of dower, were returned yesterday. The petitioner sets forth that her husband, Manuel A. Barete, left a piece of property in Kalihi, valued at $1000, to Agnes Soares by will and asks that her right of dower in this property be admeasured.

Letters testamentary were ordered issued yesterday morning by Judge Robinson to Andrew E. Cox and C. M. Cooke in the matter of the estate of John T. Anderson, deceased, and the latter's will was admitted to probate. The bond was placed at $8000. Charles D. Crane, Lester Petrie and M. T. Simonton were appointed appraisers of the estate.

David Nahola, an insane person, through his legal guardian, George Lucas, filed a divorce libel against Mary Keawe Nahola. It was alleged that Mary Nahola is living in adultery with one H. Kamaeha. An answer was filed by the defendant admitting the allegations and the divorce prayed for was granted by Judge Robinson.

Satisfaction of judgment was filed yesterday in the suit of J. O. Carter et al., trustees under the will of Bernice P. Bishop v. the Territory of Hawaii. The suit involved certain fishing rights. Judge Robinson granted a divorce yesterday afternoon to Alfred Kaahuna from his wife Kealohani on the ground of desertion.

The third annual account of S. M. Damon, in the matter of the guardianship of Thomas Ray Keyworth, was referred to M. T. Simonton as master to examine and report. The account shows that the interest and dividends on the estate for the past year amounted to $1665.

Three Federal grand jury indictments were taken off the secret file yesterday and the arraignments set over till the September term of court. Those indicted were, J. S. Martin, Elizabeth Poepe and Alexander C. Dowsett.

IMPORTANT GATHERING ON SATURDAY EVENING

A meeting will be held at Punahou on Saturday evening of the Commissioners of the new Agricultural College with the officials of the United States Experiment station and the members of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, at which a number of papers will be read by some of the leading educationalists of the Territory on the agricultural possibilities of Hawaii. The outline of the plans for the new college will also be announced. All who are interested, and particularly what ever members of the Congressional party may be in the city, are invited to be present.

ASTORIA'S GLAD HAND HELD OUT

tion adopted by the Chamber of Commerce endorsing the Seattle Exposition, also a letter from Mr. C. R. Buckland, of the Trans-Pacific Trade, transmitting copy of a letter from the Chamber of Commerce at Astoria urging the advantages of that port as a point of shipment to Hawaii.

The following letter was also received from the Transmississippi Commercial Congress:

Cripple Creek, Colo., April 17, 1907.
Mr. H. P. Wood, Secretary, Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir: In this mail I send you a copy of the printed report of the last session of the Transmississippi Commercial Congress, which was held in Kansas City in November.

The delay in acknowledging the receipt of your membership is due to the fact that the reports were not received until yesterday.

We are now arranging for the Oklahoma session which promises to be as important as the last session, which was an historical event in the history of the organization and the Transmississippi section of this country.

If you have any suggestions to make in reference to the Islands the executive committee would be pleased to consider not only Hawaii but the Philippines. If you desire a place on the program either for yourself or someone whom your association would select please advise us as early as possible.

Hoping that you can find it convenient to return to the mainland about the time we meet, and take part in the deliberations of the Congress, I am, Very truly yours,

ARTHUR F. FRANCIS,
Secretary of the Congress.

Upon motion duly made and carried the president was authorized to appoint a representative to this Congress.

A report from the Committee on Commerce and Agriculture was submitted regarding the establishment of bonded warehouses, recommending that the suggestion of Mr. Hatch be not lost sight of, though not favoring any immediate action.

Mr. Spalding of the Legislative committee made a brief verbal report of the work of that committee in connection with the various bills brought before the last Legislature.

The president reported that, acting under authority conveyed to him at the last meeting of the Chamber, he had appointed Mr. W. R. Castle, Jr., as the representative of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce at the coming session of the Lake Mohonk Conference.

Upon motion of Mr. Spalding it was ordered that the Entertainment committee be authorized to arrange for a joint lunch or dinner to be given by the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants Association to the visiting Congressmen sometime during their stay. It was thought that Monday evening, May 27, would be an appropriate time if it could be conveniently arranged.

Following is the Astoria letter referred to above:

OREGON DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE.
Astoria Chamber of Commerce,
Astoria, Ore., April 9, 1907.

Chas. Higgins, Secretary.
Mr. C. R. Buckland, Editor and Manager, Trans-Pacific Trade, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dear Sir: I write to inform you that by a recent railroad deal Astoria is now the Oregon terminus at the mouth of the great Columbia River for James J. Hill's two important railroad systems, the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, and from this time on Astoria will be in line for the best trade and commerce that Honolulu can afford. We handle all of the products that are handled at Portland, but we have the advantage over Portland to this extent; while that city is more than 100 miles inland, we are at the mouth of the river right on the coast; thus we can handle products without towing the ships 100 miles inland and back again. We have a down-hill railroad haul all the way from the important grain and agricultural centers, and thus are at a great advantage over Portland, as well as the ports of Seattle and Tacoma on Puget Sound and San Francisco. Inland products to either of these ports must be hauled up mountains more than 4000 feet high, but our railroad comes down the bank of the Columbia River, and thus we escape lifting our commerce above the clouds. This alone insures the future greatness of Astoria in the Pacific commerce and trade.

I would like to hear from you in detail as to what kind of business relations we can best form that will be of mutual advantage to the commercial interests of Astoria and to Honolulu, and any other information you can furnish me will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,
ASTORIA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
Per J. H. WHYTE,
Manager.

RHEUMATISM MAKES LIFE MISERABLE.

A happy home is the most valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering from rheumatism. You throw aside business cares when you enter your home and you can be relieved from those rheumatic pains also by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.
